Traveling this Summer?

Annie Scott, Jennifer Brecheisen, and Summer Scott are the proud owners and operators of Poppy Boutique, LLC. Poppy

Boutique sells comfortable and trendy clothing at affordable prices. However, these ladies are putting a twist on their boutique. Instead of having a storefront business they hold weekly sales on the Poppy Boutique: Trendy and Chic Facebook page.

The ladies model the clothing and share the sizes worn in each picture, so every customer can get an idea of what the clothes look like on real women with normal measurements. When a customer decides they would like to purchase an article of clothing, they post the comment "SOLD" with their e-mail address, then the customer receives an invoice of their purchase to their e-mail. If items do not sell during their weekly sale, they are moved to the "shop" tab on the Poppy Boutique, LLC business Facebook page. So there is always something available for busy women to be stylish without having to leave the comfort of their home. Annie, Jennifer, and Summer would like their customers to know that they understand how busy and hectic life can be. Their goal is to allow their customers the convenience of shopping at home, when every other option is just exhausting. The ladies would also like to thank everyone for supporting their small business and allowing them to chase their dreams.

These ladies have had long standing relationships with Lyndon State Bank and trusted LSB when looking to open a business account for their business endeavor. LSB is always happy to assist local business owners in growth and development Search for Poppy Boutique, LLC. and Poppy Boutique: Trendy and Chic on Facebook. You can see sneak peeks of upcoming outfits and participate in giveaways for free items or gift cards.
